AMANDA CROMWELL

Head Coach
Ninth Season at UCLA/
25th Season overall
Virginia '92

One would be hard-pressed to find a coach who made as big of an impact in her first season as Amanda Cromwell. Eight months after being hired on Apr. 12, 2013 as the fifth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history, Cromwell led her team to the program's first-ever NCAA Championship.

In eight seasons as UCLA's head coach, she has taken her teams to three College Cups, plus five quarterfinal and seven Round of 16 appearances, along with three Pac-12 team titles. On Oct. 5, 2017, she earned her 300th career victory. Academically, her teams have earned the United Soccer Coaches College Team Academic Award in each of her seasons at UCLA. Additionally, the 2018 Bruins won the Pac-12 Sportsmanship Award, and the 2017 squad received a Team Ethics and Sportsmanship Award from the United Soccer Coaches. Six Cromwell-coached Bruins participated in the 2019 World Cup, including three – Abby Dahlkemper, Sam Mewis and Mal Pugh – from the winning U.S. squad.

Cromwell's 2013 Bruins finished the season with a 22-1-3 record and went unbeaten over their last 21 games. They gave up just one goal during the NCAA Tournament and only eight goals all season, leading the nation in goals against average (0.296). In addition to winning the national championship, the team won the Pac-12 title and tied the school record for most victories in a season. Dahlkemper won the Honda Award, and three Bruins earned All-America honors, with five receiving first-team NSCAA All-Region honors. Cromwell herself was named Soccer America's Coach of the Year, the first-such honor for a UCLA women's soccer coach.

Year two of the Cromwell era was nearly as successful, as the Bruins went undefeated in their first 23 games before falling to Virginia in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Still, the Bruins earned a 21-1-2 record, won a second-straight Pac-12 title, set multiple school records, and accumulated a plethora of awards, including the Honda Award for Mewis and a school-record four NSCAA All-America honors. Cromwell earned NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year honors.

Although the 2015 Bruins went 8-10-1 after losing nine starters, Cromwell quickly put the pieces in place to rebuild, signing a blockbuster recruiting class in February 2016 that included three Top 10 players, led by U.S. National Team starter Pugh, Canadian Olympic bronze medalist Jessie Fleming and U.S. Under-20 National Team standout Marley Canales. Although Pugh and Canales sat out the 2016 season while with the U-20s, Fleming and her freshman teammates, six of whom were in the starting lineup in the postseason, led the Bruins to a 15-5-2 record and to the NCAA Round of 16, where they were eliminated on penalty kicks to the No. 1 overall seed West Virginia. Fleming went on to earn NSCAA All-America honors.

The 2017 season started out with seven-straight victories and a six-week run at the No. 1 national ranking. UCLA set school and national attendance records, drawing a NCAA regular season all-time record 11,925 fans to their home regular season finale against USC. UCLA finished the season with a 19-3-3 record and earned its second College Cup appearance under Cromwell.

Cromwell led the 2018 Bruins to a 17-3-2 record and a 13-game unbeaten streak to end the season. UCLA advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals but fell in penalty kicks at North Carolina. Cromwell's Bruins led the nation in points per game (8.36) and assists per game (2.82) and were tied for first in total goals (61).

The Bruins returned to the College Cup in 2019 after outscoring opponents 15-1 in the first four rounds of the NCAA Tournament. UCLA finished the year with an 18-5-1 record and won nine of its last 10 games. Fleming was a finalist for the Hermann Trophy for the second time in her career, and Kaiya McCullough won Pac-12 Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors.

In a COVID-19-delayed 2020 season, Cromwell led UCLA to a 13-1-3 record and the Pac-12 title with a 9-1-1 conference record, earning Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors for the second time. Her Bruins earned the No. 3 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Round of 16 for the seventh time in her tenure. Three of Cromwell's players earned All-America honors, and the Bruin coaching staff was selected the United Soccer Coaches Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

In addition to coaching, Cromwell was also instrumental in securing a $5-million dollar donation for the transformation of the North Athletic Field into the new home for UCLA Soccer, Wallis Annenberg Stadium.

Cromwell came to UCLA in 2013 after 14 years as head coach at the University of Central Florida. From 1999-2012, she guided the Knights to a 203-83-26 record, 11 NCAA Tournament appearances, four Atlantic Sun Tournament championships, four Conference USA regular-season titles and the 2012 C-USA tournament title. Cromwell's Knights made a NCAA Elite Eight run in 2011 that included a defeat of North Carolina in the third round. Cromwell's UCF players earned 96 all-conference honors and 38 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Region selections. They also amassed nearly 300 conference academic awards during her 14 years in Orlando, including 10 NSCAA Women's Collegiate Scholar All-American awards and one Senior CLASS Award.

Prior to Central Florida, Cromwell was head coach at University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1996-97 and an assistant coach at the University of Virginia from 1992-94.

With a 356-127-44 overall record and a .717 winning percentage at the close of the 2020 season, Cromwell ranks 17th in the NCAA in win percentage and 21st in total wins.

A native of Annandale, Va. and an inaugural member of the Annandale High School Athletic Hall of Fame, Cromwell graduated from the University of Virginia with a bachelor's degree in biology. Team captain of the 1991 Cavaliers team that advanced to the Final Four, she was a two-time All-America selection, a finalist for the 1991 Hermann Trophy and a four-time All-ACC honoree.

Following her successful collegiate career, Cromwell earned 55 caps while representing the U.S. Women's National Team. She was a member of the United States' 1995 FIFA Women's World Cup team and an alternate for the gold medal-winning U.S. Olympic team in 1996. She later played professionally for the Washington Freedom, Atlanta Beat and the San Jose CyberRays of the Women's United Soccer Association and was inducted into the Virginia-DC Soccer Hall of Fame.

Cromwell has served on the U.S. Soccer Board of Directors and the NCAA Men's and Women's Soccer Rules Committee. From 2002 to 2006, she was a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports, appointed by George W. Bush. She is also a member of the coaching staff that the State Department sends as an envoy to other countries to empower girls and women through soccer. In 2020, she became a founding investor of Angel City FC, which will begin play in the NWSL in 2022.

SAM GREENE

Associate Head Coach
Fifth Season
Northwestern '11

Former Northwestern standout Sam Greene begins her second season as Associate Head Coach and her fifth season as a Bruin coach. This will be her ninth season on the UCLA staff.

Greene serves as the team's recruiting coordinator and has brought in three Top 10 recruiting classes in each of her three years in the role, including the No. 1 class in 2020 and the No. 2 class in 2019.

In addition to her recruiting duties, Greene focuses on attacking play and holistic player development, and contributes to all aspects of the program, including coaching, scouting, video analysis, marketing and branding including NIL, camp design and curriculum development.

UCLA's Director of Soccer Operations from 2013-16, Greene moved into a volunteer assistant coach role in the summer of 2017 and helped guide the Bruins to the College Cup that year. She was promoted to assistant coach in 2018 and helped coach the Bruins to the quarterfinals that year and back to the College Cup in 2019. In 2020, after guiding UCLA to the Pac-12 title, she and the Bruin coaching staff were selected by the United Soccer Coaches as the Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Greene has a U.S. Soccer Federation Senior "A" License. In 2018, she was selected to the United Soccer Coaches 30 under 30 program.

A four-year letterwinner at Northwestern, Greene was a two-time Academic All-Big Ten soccer player and Big Ten Distinguished Scholar during her senior year. She finished her career ranked fourth on Northwestern's career (16) and single-season (eight) assists lists and fifth on the career games played list (78). She graduated from Northwestern in 2011 with a degree in Learning and Organizational Change.

Greene and her wife, Alicia Greene, currently reside in Redondo Beach, Calif.

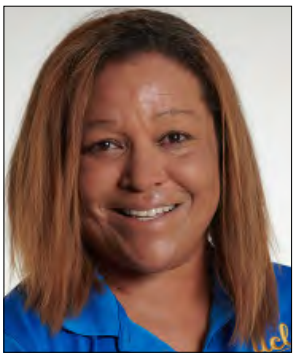
In 2020, after guiding UCLA to the Pac-12 title, she and the Bruin coaching staff were selected by the United Soccer Coaches as the Pacific Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

She has a UEFA B Coaching license and served as head coach of the Space Coast United U-10, U-11 and U-16 girls and as an assistant coach of the U-15 boys team from 2014-18. She currently coaches the 2010 Pre - ECNL LA Breakers team and 2012 White LA Breakers team. Prior to coaching, Alukonis taught for three years in Baltimore City as part of the program Teach for America.

A four-year starter at Duke from 2006-09, Alukonis started 76 of her 84 matches and tallied five goals, including one game-winner, and 11 assists for 21 points. She was an ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District III and All-ACC Academic Team selection as a senior team captain with the Blue Devils and finished her standout career as a four-time ACC Honor Roll selection. Alukonis received the ACC Top Six for Service Award as a senior for her volunteer efforts at Duke. She returned to her alma mater in 2015 and 2016 as the Director of Operations.

Alukonis, who is a native of Cocoa Beach, Fla., received a Master of Philosophy in social and developmental psychology with honors at the University of Cambridge in 2011. She graduated from Duke in 2010 with a degree in political science and sociology, along with a minor in psychology.



SASKIA WEBBER

Goalkeeping Coach
Second Season
Rutgers '93

Saskia Webber begins her second season as volunteer goalkeeper coach at UCLA. In her first campaign, she guided first-year starter Lauren Brzykcy to All-America and Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Year honors.

Webber was a member of U.S. Soccer's legendary 1999 World Cup championship team and was also teammates with Bruin head coach Amanda Cromwell on the 1995 World Cup squad and 1996 Olympic team. A member of the USWNT for eight years, Webber was a founding member of the Women's United Soccer Association, playing for the Philadelphia Charge in 2001 and for the New York Power in 2002. Additionally, she played professionally for three years in Japan for Oki FC, where she was named the top goalkeeper of the league.

A four-year starter at Rutgers University, Webber was an All-American, Honda Award finalist and winner of the Missouri Athletic Club Goalkeeper of the Year Award in 1992. She finished her collegiate career with a school-record 34 shutouts, a record that stood for 17 years. Webber was selected by Soccer America to the Team of the 90s, and in 1998, she became the first female soccer player to be inducted into the Rutgers Athletics Hall of Fame.

Prior to starting her coaching duties at UCLA, Webber served as the director of goalkeeping for the Los Angeles Bulls.

Webber is a founding investor of Angel City FC, which will begin play in the NWSL in 2022, and the host of the popular podcast "Inside The 18".

Their goal, their motivator, their mantra all season was 110. The number of NCAA Championships UCLA would have if they won their first. The women's soccer team was one of the few teams on campus that had yet win a championship, their place in the famed trophy room in the Hall of Fame non-existent.

That would change in 2013 when the Bruins, despite a difficult playoff path that saw them face three No. 1 seeds and the last two NCAA champions, won their first-ever title, 1-0 in overtime against Florida State.

UCLA breezed through the regular season with a 17-1-2 record, winning the Pac-12 title and taking a No. 2 national ranking and a 15-game unbeaten streak into the postseason, their only loss coming in game five of the season, 1-0, to North Carolina.

The Bruins, however, were denied a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and had to face Pac-12 rival Stanford, the 2011 NCAA Champion, in the Round of 16 before traveling to Chapel Hill for a quarterfinal matchup with 2012 NCAA Champion North Carolina. UCLA posted its third-straight NCAA shutout by beating Stanford, 2-0, turning the tables on a Cardinal team that had eliminated the Bruins in three of the last four tournaments.

With one of the last two NCAA champions taken out, the Bruins set their sights on the most recent one, the No. 1-seed Tar Heels. Unlike the first meeting earlier in the year, where UCLA goalkeeper Katelyn Rowland was making heroic save after heroic save as the Tar Heels outshot the Bruins, 23-6, this quarterfinal match was more evenly-played, with each team taking 11 shots. The Bruins had eight of their 11 shots on goal, forcing UNC goalkeeper Anna Sieloff into a career-high seven saves, while UNC tallied four shots on goal, all of which were saved by Rowland. Taylor Smith broke the scoreless tie early in the second overtime, scoring a minute and a half in. Sarah Killion sent a great through ball to Smith, whose shot was initially saved by Sieloff. Smith, however, followed through on the rebound, scoring far post to end the match and give UCLA its first-ever win over North Carolina.

At the College Cup for the ninth time in school history, the Bruins had another No. 1 seed to face in the semifinals - No 1 overall seed Virginia. The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead in the 73rd minute after a rare defensive miscue by the Bruins led to an empty net goal by Makenzy Doniak. UCLA fought back, however, to tie on an Ally Courtnall goal with less than five minutes remaining in regulation, and forced overtime, where the Bruins hit the post twice but failed to score, sending the game to a penalty kick shoootout. Rowland came up big in the shootout, stopping the Cavaliers' third and fourth kicks. With the Bruins holding a 3-2 advantage after successful makes by Sam Mewis, Sarah Killion and Lauren Kaskie, Rosie White stepped up for the potential winner. The 2012 New Zealand Olympian calmly stepped up and put the shot into the back of the net to send the Bruins to the championship game.

The 2013 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 110th NCAA title

In the final, it was UCLA against yet another No. 1 seed, Florida State. The Bruins controlled the majority of possession in the first half, but were unable to generate any chances in the early going. Smith had the first serious chance of the match for either side in the 30th minute, controlling a free kick from Killion in the box before wheeling around and putting a shot on frame. The ball beat Florida State keeper Kelsey Wys but clanged off the crossbar and out of play, keeping the match scoreless.

Then right before the half, UCLA almost went ahead again when Caprice Dydasco took a long shot that forced Wys to make a diving save. Smith gathered the rebound and put a shot towards the far post, but once again the ball bounced off the post and away from danger, sending the teams into the locker room tied at 0-0.

The Bruins continued to keep the ball in their third of the field at the start of the second half, and created another good scoring opportunity in the 59th minute. Darian Jenkins did well to keep the ball on the left side of the Seminole box and was able to cross the ball back to the top of the box to Jenna Richmond. Richmond one-timed a shot on goal, but once again Wys was there to make the save. Kodi Lavrusky had another shot at putting the Bruins on top in the 66th minute, when a cross from White trickled to the front of the goal to Lavrusky. She could not get a foot on it though, and Wys eventually gathered the ball for Florida State.

UCLA continued to push forward, consistently keeping the possession. In the 87th minute however, the Seminoles nearly took the lead when Kristin Grubka headed a long throw-in on net. Defender Megan Oyster came up big for the Bruins though, heading the ball off the line to prevent the goal. From there, neither side could find the back of the net before regulation ended and the match went to overtime.

In the first overtime, Killion had a chance to end the game for the Bruins in the 96th minute when she controlled a corner and took a shot towards an open net after Wys came out. Her shot was cleared off the line by the Seminoles, however, and the match stayed scoreless. Then in the 97th minute, Lavrusky finally handed the Bruins the title when she took a terrific through ball in the box from Oyster and finished far post for her seventh goal of the year.

UCLA head coach Amanda Cromwell became just the second women's soccer coach ever to win the NCAA title in her first season with a team, as well as only the second female coach to win the title, joining Becky Burleigh, who led Florida to victory in 1998.

Courtnall, who scored the game-tying goal in the semifinal, was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Defensive Player and selected to the all-tournament team along with Killion, Oyster and Rowland.

The Bruins continued to enjoy the fruits of victory when they returned home to Los Angeles, making an appearance on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno and being honored at the State Capitol and City Hall. Defender Abby Dahlkemper won the Honda Award for soccer, becoming the first Bruin ever to take the honor, and she was also named the NSCAA Scholar All-American Player of the Year and a finalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy. Head coach Amanda Cromwell was awarded Soccer America's National Coach of the Year.

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

The UCLA soccer teams will begin its third year of play at Wallis Annenberg Stadium, which officially opened its doors on Aug. 17, 2018 with a thrilling 1-0 victory by the UCLA women over Long Beach State.

The stadium, which seats 2,145, is located at the previously-named North Athletic Field, where the Bruins practiced and played selected home games from 1993-1999. The new stadium was made possible thanks to a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. The grand opening completed the first phase of the stadium project and included grandstand seating and press box on the west side, scoreboard and stadium lighting. Expected upgrades in future phases include a spectator amenity building to house restrooms and concessions; a day-of-game locker room building that includes two team locker rooms and two auxiliary locker rooms; and a shared team meeting room and equipment storage.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field.

Drake Stadium, which was the Bruins' home stadium from 2000-17, now serves as the teams' practice facility. Prior to moving to Drake Stadium, the Bruins played home games on the North Athletic Fleld, Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time home record is 262-36-18.

UCLA soccer set a new attendance record on Nov. 3, 2017 when a NCAA regular season record 11,925 fans packed Drake Stadium to see the Bruins win the crosstown showdown over USC, 3-2 in overtime.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
2nd Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with more than 18 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond is guiding UCLA to new heights through his culture of being ELITE – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence. Martin's results driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics creates an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020, as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. Jarmond made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. In addition, Jarmond has UCLA primed to be one of the leaders in the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL) which will assist student-athletes in growing brand awareness and determining their earning potential. He was also recently named as the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22.

Comprehensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the pandemic, ensured all Bruin teams could compete safely during their 2020-21 seasons. UCLA teams captured four conference titles and the men's water polo team brought national title No. 119 home to Westwood. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey which led to an appearance in the 2021 NCAA Final Four and the program's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. UCLA finished 13th nationally in the 2020-21 Learfield IMG College Director's Cup. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-today operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 41, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Erin Adkins

Asso. Athletic Director
4th Year at UCLA
Arizona '06

Erin Adkins begins her first full-time season as sport administrator for women's soccer.

Adkins, UCLA's associate athletic director of compliance since 2018, is responsible for the oversight of all athletics compliance operations and rules education efforts. She is currently a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators and Women's Leaders in Sports.

From 2015-2018 Adkins worked at Vanderbilt University as the assistant athletic director of compliance. In that role, she was responsible for handling oversight of all compliance related to NCAA and SEC regulations. Adkins also served as sport administrator for the women's swimming and diving team.

Prior to Vanderbilt Adkins began her career at The University of San Diego, serving there from 2009-15. Adkins began at San Diego as a legal intern. Upon graduating law school, Adkins was hired full time as the assistant director of compliance and academic counselor. By 2012, Adkins was promoted to assistant athletic director, where she began overseeing all aspects of NCAA and WCC compliance. Adkins also served as sport administrator for the men's and women's tennis and golf programs.

Adkins graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor of arts in 2006 with a major in political science and a minor in business administration. She earned her juris doctorate degree from California Western School of Law and was accepted into the California State Bar in 2010. A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Adkins grew up spending a great amount of time at the Rose Bowl and Pauley Pavilion.

Adkins is the Women's Leader in Sports (formerly NACWAA) 2015 recipient of the Judith M. Sweet Commitment Award, as well as the University of San Diego 2011 Women of Impact Honoree.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
15th Year at UCLA
Stanford '77

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007. As chief executive officer, he oversees the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

He has defined academic excellence, civic engagement, diversity and financial security as top priorities for his administration. A champion of public universities, his dedication to access and affordability has enhanced UCLA's position as a national leader in enrolling undergraduates who are Pell Grant recipients, come from underrepresented groups and go on to become first-generation college graduates.

Under Chancellor Block's leadership, UCLA has been named the number one public university in the United States, has grown its profile internationally and receives $1 billion annually in research grants. In one of the largest capital campaigns ever undertaken by a public university, UCLA surpassed its $4.2 billion Centennial fundraising goal more than a year ahead of schedule, raising $5.49 billion total.

An expert in neuroscience, Chancellor Block's current research focuses on the effects of aging in the nervous system and how it impacts biological timing in mammals, including humans. He holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA and in integrative biology and physiology in the UCLA College of Letters and Science.

Chancellor Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. Before becoming chancellor of UCLA, Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he was also the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professor of Biology. During his 29 years there, he served as vice president for research and public service and as founding director of the National Science Foundation Science and Technology Center in Biological Timing.

Chancellor Block has served on the executive boards of several leading organizations, including the Association of American Universities, National Collegiate Athletic Association, Association of Public and Land-grant Universities and the Association of Pacific Rim Universities. He is the recipient of numerous professional awards and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Chancellor Block is a native of Monticello, N.Y. He and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.
